

Please allow more time for a public debate of the ownership rules. This is a hugely important issue and we have not had enough public input and debate. What is there to lose by allowing more time for consideration?

Sincerely,

Grey Larsen